GOING MY WAY?

I WAS,
CANDY!

The image features a dense background collage of vintage comic book covers. Titles visible include "Supermouse", "JETTA", "MYSTERY COMICS", "FANTASTIC TALES", "COSMO CAT", "STARTLING COMICS", "STRANGE MYSTERIES", "DARING ADVENTURES", "FAMOUS FUNNIES", "HILARIOUS RAUCOUS", "TEEN-AGE SWEETHEART OF THE 21st CENTURY", "DUCK", "EERIE", "EXCITING COMICS", "CASPER CAT", "BARNYARD COMICS", and "STRANGE WORLDS". The covers depict various genres such as superhero action, mystery, humor, and science fiction. Overlaid on this collage is a large, dark purple speech bubble with a thick black outline. Inside the bubble, the text "WEB COMIC UNIVERSE.COM" is written in a bold, white, sans-serif font with a slight drop shadow effect.

New Figure Mold Hide-A-Waist

17 Sensational Features Streamline Your Waist - Hide Bulges

Say "good-bye" to that unbecoming tummy bulge and clumsy waistline . . . AND . . . instead enjoy what you need most for your figure with HIDE-A-WAIST. Candy's Good Deed

SCHOOL was over for the day and Candy stood on the steps talking to her two best friends, Trish and Tina. They were discussing their dates for a party on the weekend. Naturally, Candy would be with Ted. Trish was going with Roger. And Tina, always fat and happy, was in a tizzy because a muscle man named Andy had invited her and she wouldn't have to go with pint-sized Orville. Everything was shaping up for a fine time until Candy saw Polly Westmore coming through the door toward them.

"Gee," said Candy suddenly. "Do you suppose anyone's asked Polly for a date? She's nice even if she is plain looking and it would be a shame for her to be left out."

"I agree," replied Trish as she turned toward Polly. "Let's find out."

The girl greeted Polly warmly. "We were just talking about the party this weekend," Candy ventured, approaching the subject cautiously. "Who's taking you?"

"No one yet," Polly answered with a smile. "You see, I've written to my boy friend at home to see if he can make it. But I haven't heard from him yet."

"I hope he can come," smiled Candy. "I'd like to meet him."

"I want you to," Polly said trying to look pleased. "He's tall and good looking and a lot of fun only—only I'm terribly afraid he won't be able to be here."

As Polly went on her way, Candy turned to her two friends. "I have a hunch," she told them, "that there isn't any boy friend at all. I believe she's bluffing just because no one has asked her."

"Why would they?" asked Tina, with a shrug of her shoulders. "She does nothing to make herself attractive."

"That's the trouble," mused Candy as if talking to herself. "And I'm going to do something about it. I'm going to talk to her about it. It would be doing a good deed."

"It certainly would," agreed Trish. "If she'd wear a little makeup and not pull her hair back over her ears and wear some up-to-date glasses, she could have a good time like the rest of us."

Polly and her parents had recently moved to Hartwick and they didn't live far from the O'Connors. So Candy sauntered by their house that evening and paid a call on Polly and was soon launched on her big project.

"Why don't you let me fix your hair?" she suggested. "And don't you ever wear makeup?"

"I guess I've been pretty sloppy," Polly admitted, "but I've lost interest lately. I always fixed up for Jim."

"Jim's the boy friend?" queried Candy. And when Polly nodded, she added, "Let's do it anyway. I want to see how you look."

It was almost closing time at the Sweet Shoppes when Candy walked in with Polly, proud to display her work of art. The girl who had looked so plain had become quite a beauty. Her hair was curled. She was wearing enough makeup to give her color. And she had taken off her glasses which she didn't really need except for reading. Tina and Trish were sitting in a booth and stared. So did Ted and Roger and Andy who were standing talking to the girls. Andy invited Polly to join him for a soda. Ted and Roger sat at stools alongside. Tina turned to Candy with an unfriendly frown.

"You and your good deeds," she mumbled. "You make the gal look so good that she walks off with my boy friend."

"Mine, too," muttered Trish.

"What about me?" grumbled Candy with disgust as she plunked herself in the booth opposite the two. "Do you think I like the way Ted turned his back on me? I wanted Polly to have dates but not ours."

The day of the party arrived and Candy saw Polly walking down the street, looking pretty and happy. And why shouldn't she be wreathed in smiles? After all the attention she'd had? A girl who couldn't even get a date before and made up stories about a tall, handsome boy friend named Jim, Candy couldn't feel much sympathy.

That night, she treated Ted a little coolly. She noticed that Trish and Tina were a bit uppity with their dates, too. But they all stood staring as they saw Polly enter with the tallest, handsomest and certainly the most charming fellow at the party. And Polly was taking him right toward Candy.

"I want you to meet Jim Durant," she said. "He was able to come to our party after all."

"I heard how you took Polly in hand," grinned Jim. "She looks swell but of course she'd look good to me any time. "But she says you're her best friend."

Candy and Trish and Tina gave each other knowing smiles. Then they turned their attentions to their dates. And Candy felt content. Polly looked pretty and appeared to be having such a good time. Trish and Tina were, too. Things were back on the same old basis between her and Ted. Her good deed had turned out okay, after all.

"Dynamic Tension" is the easy, NATURAL method that you can practice in the privacy of your own room—JUST 15 MINUTES EACH DAY—while your scrawny chest and shoulder muscles begin to swell . . . those spindly arms and legs of yours bulge . . . and your whole body starts to feel full of zip, ambition, self-confidence, and new energy!

"Dynamic Tension" Builds You NATURALLY

Thousands of other fellows are becoming marvelous physical specimens—my way. I give you no gadgets or contraptions to fool with. You simply utilize the dormant muscle-power in your own body. In a very short time, you'll watch it grow and multiply into real, solid, rippling, LIVE MUSCLE.

WHAT'S MY SECRET?

When you look in the mirror and see a healthy, husky, strapping fellow sniffling back at you—then you'll be astonished at how fast "Dynamic Tension" GETS RESULTS!
